Giovanni, Rex and Cainnleach, Regina Outlandium

Unto the noble and gracious Populace of the Outlands, warm and glad Salutations and good Greetings.

Huzzah to Their Excellencies, THLord Ryan and THLady Tana, Baron and Baroness of al-Barran. We wish Their new Excellencies good fortune and unto Baron Trevor and Baroness Fermina, good rest.

We would like start out our acknowledgments by thanking Duchess Aziza and her sidekick, Duke Artan, and the rest of a very talented Outlandish crew. Despite some interesting weather, We had a great time and truly enjoyed Ourselves. We very much want to thank the members of the College of Blaiddwyn. These good gentles helped Us set up camp, attended to Our needs (usually over their own), and helped Us put it all back away as well. Their kindness will never be forgotten.

The month now past is one where We shall travel West to Artemisia and East to Calontir. Cementing alliances and good will between Kingdoms is something We feel is essential. Our good friends both East and West stand strongly beside Us and We are proud to represent our Populace and Kingdom.

But wait, what of our northern borders you may ask? The Principality of Northshield shall become a Kingdom this October. While they may not yet be a Kingdom in time for Pennsic, We believe this to be a mere formality. As such, the Kingdom of the Outlands will be allied with Northshield at Pennsic War. We will be their first ally in their own right.

To further celebrate our growing relationships, His Stellar Highness Hrodir will be attending this year's Glory. The King and Queen of Artemisia as well as Their Heirs will be in attendance. The primary goal of the attendees will be to have Fun. We will also be holding discussions regarding the creation of Glory Wars between Artemisia and Northshield (with the Outlands filling out the sides – similar to the Gulf Wars concept). We ask that everyone extend out our famous Outlands hospitality to those that travel from Artemisia and Northshield to Glory.

Other events of note in July will be Stags Con. We hope to visit with as many of Our officers as possible at this premier service event. If you are a Shire officer and need financial assistance to attend, please contact Our Seneschal, THL Roland. At this event, Mistress Bennett will be created a member of the Order of the Laurel if that is her wish.

Immediately following Stags Con is a very busy Lonely Mountain Defender. At this event three Orders of Peerage shall be given. During Saturday morning court We hope to elevate Baroness Helga Tynker to the Order of the Pelican. Saturday night court, please join Us for the Knighting of THL Qara-Gan, Fontaine's first home-grown Peer. Finally, to cap these festivities, His Grace Kynan will be asked to attend Court regarding becoming a member of the Order of Chivalry.

We have been truly blessed to be allowed to Serve you. We have witnessed so many large and small courtesies rendered not to Us but from you to your friends, neighbors and, yes, even total strangers. It is our sense of Community that holds all of us together. That bond is strong in the Outlands. It grows stronger every day.

Yours, in Service to the Outlands;

Giovanni Cainnleach

Merchants Welcome! Volunteers needed!

Pennsic 33 Blood Drive - Be a Hero, Save a Life at Pennsic War

Greeting good gentles of the Known World.

The Pennsic War will soon be upon us, and while we are 'playing war' with our friends, many others are fighting one for their lives. Every blood donation is a chance to save a life, so please remember there will be a Red Cross blood drive at Pennsic War 33.

The annual blood drive will take place on Friday, August 13th and Monday, August 16th from 10:00am to 4:00pm at the Zion Baptist Church, 148 Curry Road, Slippery Rock, PA. The church is located within walking distance of the Pennsic grounds (just below Mt. Eislinn) and will be added to the bus route each drive day.

If you would like to pre-register to donate, volunteer, or would just like more information, please contact me at scahedgehog@verizon.net. Once War has started, you can still sign up at Chirurgeon's Point.

Together, we can make a difference. So, "Be a Hero, Save a Life at Pennsic War".

Do you all remember last year at Silver Pass VIII? No S, there we were and it . . .

We are not going to expect the same Thunderous happenings this year. You do not need to make Spectacular Entrance: We just want to you come and see what happens this year! Our little shire always puts on a great event and this year will be not the exception. We will have the Defender of the Silver Pass Tourney for the armored combatants, the Shire Defender Tourney for the rapier community, a grand time for all the archers, and all the other contests of skill and craft that you commonly find at Silver Pass. We have the same site as last year with the trees and grass, lots of room for camping, merchanting, reveling and relaxing at the end of summer.

We are also hosting the Southern Semi-finals for the Wendover Bard: We anticipate a wonderful show of the talent the Kingdom bards have to offer. The semi-finals will be on Sat. and the shire will host our own bardic competition on Sun. New to our activity list is a children's bardic held during the daytime hours.

The site is wet; enjoy it responsibly. Your pets must be on a leash at all times. We have so much fun at Silver Pass: Come and join us. Maybe you too can have a No S story of your very own.

Herald's Office—White Stag Principle Herald

Good greetings!

With any luck, I am in the East attending KWHS as you read these letters, learning more about heraldry to better serve the kingdom. It is only fair, then, that I give you something of educational value as well. Thus, I offer two samples of early precedents of the Laurel office:

> "It is a false and scurrilous rumor that members of the College are required to make puns at every opportunity. A proper College member does this automatically and needs no encouragement. (HB, Spring 1970 [4], p. 16)"

> "Let it be noted that the difference between heraldry in the Old Middle Ages and in the Current Middle Ages is that the heralds of old enjoyed inventing elaborate wording to mystify the populace, but we don't care to. They, be it noted, were trying to attain job security. We are trying to avoid working so hard. (RoH, 28 Mar 71 [15], p. 4)"

In other news, there is a new discussion group for the promotion of heraldic display in the kingdom, and all interested parties may subscribe by sending e-mail to subscribe-outlandsdisplay@yahoogroups.com, or by contacting the list owner, Lord Roderick, at jackalope01@yahoo.com. List membership is restricted for spam control.

That is all for this month, please know that I may be reached at whitestag@outlands.org or whitestag@outlandsheralds.org.

In service and duty,
Lady Sorcha MacLeod

Seneschal's Office—Waiver Deputy

I would like to thank all the seneschals and autocrats that responded to my email regarding delinquent waivers. I appreciate all your hard work! However, I have not received or been contacted by seneschals or autocrats regarding the following events: 12th Night (Caerthe), 12th Night (Plattefordham), 12th Night (Citadel of the Southern Pass), St Patrick's Archery Tourney (Caerthe), Beltane (Duthaich Beinne Aird), and Pheons and Phules Archery Tourney (Caerthe). Please send in the waivers for these events or contact me electronically-these waivers are seriously overdue!

I am going to start spot-checking waivers at events. I am trying to develop a training guideline regarding the handling of waivers and, in order to do this, I need to find out how different groups train their "trolls". Please do not be offended if I bring any problems to your attention-my goal is to educate, not to find fault. I just want our Kingdom and Society to be protected from possible legal troubles-I hope you will help me to do this.

Keep up the good work! Please feel free to contact me with any questions-I will do my best to find an answer for you.

Your Servant,
Mistress Richenza le Wydu

Seneschal's Office

Unto the populace of the Outlands, does The Honorable Lord Roland O'Rourke, Outlands Kingdom Seneschal, send festive greetings!

Ah, summer is in the air.

The sounds and sights of our current middle ages, abounds in all directions. Take care to treasure the memories made in these months, for they will warm you when the colder winter winds prevail. Be safe, be responsible and have fun.

Since the time of my last missive, there have been a number of new faces within the Senschalate, of which I'd like to make mention. Congratulations to Lord Schuyler (Blaiddwyn), m'lord Connell (Ram's Keep), THLady Orfhlaith (Caerthe) and Lady Drucilla (Gleann Medonach) for stepping into these most honorable roles of service. May your appointments be filled with the goodwill and support of those who reside within the groups that you will serve.

"But what about those who just completed their service?" you may ask. Be assured that they are not forgotten. Let all gentles who read this missive know that I offer Lord Gauvain (Blaiddwyn), m'lady Sofia (Ram's Keep), THLord Robert (Caerthe) and Lady Michaela (Gleann Medonach) my most heartfelt thanks for all of their hard work and dedication to both to their respective groups and to this magnificent Kingdom. Huzzah to all of you.

Can you smell the flowers in the air?

Many of you are probably aware that the SCA will be turning a respectable 40 years in age, in just under a year from now. Quite a milestone in the history of our society, I would say, considering the humble origins of our organization. Especially, when you take into account that college students were at the heart of the ideals and traditions we uphold today. With this in mind, I would like to welcome the newest addition to our Kingdom: The Incipient College at Three Spires. This second College of the Barony of Caerthe was birthed into the Outlands by receiving incipient status as one of the final acts of then King Hoegaarden and Queen Chiara, at Outlands Coronation in May. From my own part in their creation, I must tell you that I was quite impressed with the enthusiasm and competency demonstrated by these gentles and encourage you all to make their acquaintance. I suspect they have greatness within their future.

Can you feel the warm sun on your face?

There is but one more item regarding history, which I would convey within this missive. That item is the importance of retaining it. Like many within the time period we observe, much of what lasts beyond our physical presence, are the items we create and leave behind. Scrolls, medallions, various accoutrements and special clothing and furniture are just some examples of the history of our society and those people that created it. Unfortunately, with every passing year, another piece of this fantastic legacy disappears. Old thrones break, medallions get lost and scrolls end up buried under old magazines. Please, good populace, find out what you can do to preserve the history of your group and kingdom. Volunteer or seek out those charged with this awesome task and offer your time. Once we loose a piece of our history, we loose a piece of ourselves.

Where is that sweet music coming from?

Finally, as if you didn't see this coming, I must plug Stags Con. I'll make this short. If you are an officer, want to be or just look like one, then travel to friendly Socorro, NM on Saturday, July 10 for a variety of officer and service related classes and discussions. Please refer to the article within these pages for further information.

SCA tips and suggestions:

* The only person who doesn't mind cigarette butts on the ground is the person who put them there!
* The wise romantic is always aware of the "age of consent" for the state in which he/she happens to be reveling within.
* Always be aware of and abide by any fire restrictions for the site. Try to find out in advance, if possible, but always adhere to them once you've been made aware. Ambience takes a back seat whenever safety becomes an issue.

Earl Marshal's Office—Kingdom Marshal of Fence

From the Marshal of Fence, Greetings,

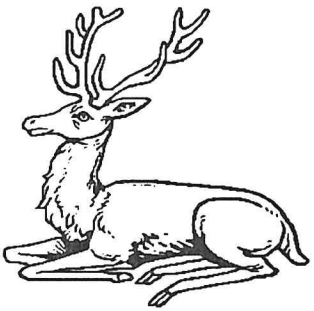
As I write this, I'm in the midst of packing for Outlandish; I'm hoping to see many of you there and I'm sure we'll all have new stories to tell after the event.

In July, however, will come StagsCon – again, I hope to see many of you at the College of St. Golias for this to discuss any issues or ideas you have. I hope to have a free-form discussion on the rules and issues (if any). In particular, I'd like to talk about ways to make it easier to authorize schlager, either having separate single point authorizations or a combined epee/schlager authoritzation.

Epee, however, will remain the primary unless I hear very convincing arguments otherwise!

Hope to see you there, and I invite comment and discussion either in e-mail, in person or on the Outlands Rapier list.

Yours In Service,
Don Charles Robert Blackstone



Bards of the Outlands, spread the word!

The competition to select the next Windhover Bard is about to begin! Preliminary competitions will be held on July 3 at Glory in Unser Hafen and (autocrat willing) September 4-5 at Silver Pass in Rio de las Animas. The finals will be held at Crown Tournament only one week later on September 11 - southern competitors be prepared! These events were selected to host the competition in accordance with the wishes of both their Majesties and the bards who expressed their preferences to me.

For the preliminary competitions, each entrant will perform two pieces of different styles. One of these pieces must be an original work of spoken-word poetry. The two pieces combined may not exceed 15 minutes (for example, if one piece is 9 minutes long, then the other must be less than 6 minutes). Some entrants may be asked to present additional performances. Bards may enter either the northern or southern preliminaries, regardless of where they live, but not both.

The finalists will perform two pieces of any style, plus an original spoken-word poem composed around a theme to be announced the morning of the competition.

I hope that many of our talented bards will choose to participate in this competition both to honor Mistress Kyriel, the premier Windhover Bard, and to support the bardic arts in the Outlands.

In service,
Lady Elaisse de Garrigues
Windhover Bard of the Outlands

Change to Kingdom Law

The change to Kingom Law VI. Events and Tournaments, D. signed into Kingdom Law on February 28, 2004 and published in the April 2004 Outlandish Herald, enacted by King Kerold Hoegaarden and Queen Chiara della Luna on February 28, 2004, is hereby repealed. The law shall now revert to the wording, prior to the change. The repeal shall be effective immediately.

The change to the law in question was made so that the Outlands arts and sciences event would not conflict with a modern holiday. Now that a calendar conflict no longer applies, the change of Outlands Kingdom Law VI. Events and Tournaments, D. is being repealed to the wording of the law in effect, prior to the change.

The wording of said law was and shall now read:

VI. Events and Tournaments
D. There shall be an arts and sciences event each year to be held the second weekend of April. The Minister of the Arts and Sciences shall organize the event in accordance with the wishes of the Crown. Other Kingdom arts and sciences events can be scheduled at the request of the Crown and the Minister of the Arts and Sciences.

Signed this 1st day of May A.S. XXXIX, being 2004 in the common reckoning of years.

Contact Information for other coordinators as mentioned above is: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an e-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Look for this to be enforced RIGOROUSLY beginning with the November 2003 issue! Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.

Knowledgeable persons needed to design heavy & light fighting scenarios. Scenarios should involve protecting caravans of traders on the Silk Road in Asia, preferably using teams. Don't forget, it might be cold outside! Contact the autocrat for more specifics on the field and time schedule.
Scenario proposals are due before August 31st, 2004.

ARTISANS NEEDED

Have you ever wanted to sell some of your work but never wanted to become a full time merchant? There will be merchanting booth set up for those who would like to sell only a few items. Reserve your space in the booth for a flat fee of $5.00. All proceeds from the sale of your items go back to you!

FOOD MERCHANT NEEDED

A food merchant is needed to provide quality Chinese-style food for lunch. There is no evening feast scheduled for the event. There is a kitchen on site. The autocrat requires a taste test before final menu approval (hee hee!)

SET DESIGNERS NEEDED

The site is a Community Center containing an indoor gymnasium with lots of basketball hoops. We need your creative ideas to turn this into a caravan marketplace. Suggestions for the Royal & Baronial rooms are welcome as well. A minimal budget (and Dragonsspinian helpers) will be available to help turn your ideas into reality.

The poor economy has been hard on us all, especially our SCA merchants. Show your support and start saving up for this glorious pre-holiday shopping event! Plan on doing your holiday shopping all in one place.

For all inquiries on the above items, contact your Most Honorable autocrat, Duchess Mina,
